

At the Grave: Laying to rest the ashes of Lillis Marion Nicholson Tinkler and Heather Ann Fleming Tinkler

Everyone the Father gives to me will come to me; I will never turn away anyone who believes in me. [John 6:37]

My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; my body also shall rest in hope. You will show me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy, and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore [Psalm 16:9 & 11]

It is with a sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ that we commend to Almighty God our sisters Lillis Marion and Heather Ann, and we commit their ashes to their resting place; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust. The Lord bless them and keep them, the Lord make his face to shine upon them and be gracious unto them, the Lord lift up his countenance upon them and give them peace. Amen.

Rest eternal grant to Lillis and to Heather, O Lord. And let light perpetual shine upon them.

May their souls, and the souls of all the departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

May the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in you that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Go forth in the name of Christ. Thanks be to God.

Hymn: I Cannot Tell, Why He Whom Angels Worshipped

I cannot tell why he, whom angels worship, should set his love upon the sons of men,
or why, as Shepherd, he should seek the wanderers, to bring them back, they know not how or when.
But this I know, that he was born of Mary when Beth'lem's manger was his only home, and that he lived at Nazareth and laboured, and so the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is come.

I cannot tell how silently he suffered,
as with his peace he graced this place of tears,
or how his heart upon the cross was broken,
the crown of pain to three and thirty years.
But this I know, he heals the broken-hearted and stays our sin and calms our lurking fear and lifts the burden from the heavy laden;
for still the Saviour, Saviour of the world is here.

I cannot tell how he will win the nations, how he will claim his earthly heritage, how satisfy the needs and aspirations of east and west, of sinner and of sage.
But this I know, all flesh shall see his glory,
and he shall reap the harvest he has sown,
and some glad day his sun will shine in splendour when he the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is known.

I cannot tell how all the lands shall worship, when at his bidding every storm is stilled, or who can say how great the jubilation when every heart with love and joy is filled.
But this I know, the skies will thrill with rapture,
and myriad myriad human voices sing,
and earth to heav'n, and heav'n to earth, will answer,
'at last the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is King!'
